

Vidya Vikas Newsletter

May, 2017

Religion Teacher in focus

Susmitha Anganagari lives in Flower Mound with her husband Venkat and two kids Shreya and Suchir. Both her kids were Vidya Vikas students. She has been at Vidya Vikas teacher for the past 13 years. She started teaching when her son was 5 years old and he will be 18 this year. It gives Susmitha immense pleasure and satisfaction to teach young kids at the temple every Sunday. Teachers play a great role in molding the kids and teaching them values and discipline. Susmitha is glad that she is able to do that to hundreds of children by volunteering at Vidya Vikas.

Language Teacher in focus

Jayashree Prabu has been teaching Tamil for past 7 years. She started teaching as a parent volunteer and then as assistant teacher and finally as a main teacher. She wanted to teach kids who are brought sincerely by their parents to learn this classical language. She loves to see the recreation of the motherland atmosphere in Vidya Vikas campus every Sunday and feels grateful to be a part of temple based school. Her husband, Ganesh Prabu, is also Vidya Vikas volunteer. Her two daughters Shreeya and Shreenaya are enrolled in religion and Tamil classes for the last 9 years. Jayashree is a Substitute teacher at CISD. She loves cooking, gardening, singing, painting and spending time with friends and family. She believes that service to mankind is a service to god.

Students in focus

Samarth Bhat has been attending Vidya Vikas classes, including Hindi, for the past 5 years. He is also a member of the Youth Group. His main hobbies include reading general knowledge books, practicing bass clarinet. He participates in the school math club, school band, Boy Scouts, sports like football and swimming. He was the only student in the district to go to the 2017 State Geography Bee and made it to the top 10. He has attained Life rank in Boy Scouts. He is a recipient of the 2017 Bobby Bragan Scholarship. He is in the A Honor Roll, made the first chair in bass clarinet in the All-Region band and has qualified for the State TMSCA competition for 3 years in a row.

Upcoming events

Youth Group fence painting project: April 16, 23, 2017

Hindi Annual Function: May 13, 2017

Vidya Vikas end-of-year program: May 21, 2017

Last day of Vidya Vikas: May 21, 2017