

Language Teacher in Focus

Suganthi Krishnamurthy has been teaching Tamil Language at Vidya Vikas since 2014. She lives in Valley Ranch area with her husband Karthik and two sons - Rohith and Deebith. Her husband Karthik is very supportive of her and she couldn't do it without his support. Both her sons attended Tamil class at Vidya Vikas and her older son Rohith is now attending SAT class. She had taught at PSBB Millennium School in Chennai, India for couple of years and that made her realize how fun it is to work with kids. She now works as substitute teacher in Coppell ISD. She believes that teaching is an art and it helps to learn a lot of new stuff especially when working with young minds. She is very proud to be part of Vidya Vikas and teaching Tamil, one of the classical languages to next generation in the US. She likes cooking especially trying for new dishes, reading books, watching TV, and bicycling with her kids.
