

Religion and Language Teacher in Focus

Devika Saran is unique amongst Vidya Vikas teachers. In recent memory, she is the only teacher who teaches both religion and another class every week and Devika has been doing it for the past 10 years. She teaches religion level 1 and Hindi Level 2. It has become her passion and she looks forward to interacting with the children every Sunday. Devika believes very strongly in inculcating a love of Hindi and our value system in the current generation. She lives in Coppell with her husband and two children, all of whom have been part of the Vidya Vikas family for a number of years. She would like Vidya Vikas to be the school of choice for all youngsters interested in language and Sanatana Dharma.

Language Teacher in Focus

Sangeetha Sathiyamurthy has been volunteering in Vidya Vikas School as a Tamil and religion teacher for 6 years. she lives in the Valley Ranch with her husband Kumaran and two daughters VijayaPreesha Kumaran and VijayaSrrisha Kumaran. Her husband Kumaran, also teaches religion classes in Vidya Vikas. Her daughter, Viaya-Preesha Kumaran graduated in Tamil from Vidya Vikas and is attending religion Level 8, SAT and dance classes. Her second daughter, VijayaSrrisha kumaran, is attending religion Level 6, Tamil level 6 and dance classes. Coming to temple every Sunday has been a rewarding experience for her whole family. Providing language knowledge to the next generation so that they are proficient in the language is important. Her vision for Vidya Vikas is that families get involved and encourage their kids to participate more in the temple community to learn as much as they can about their divine culture and classical languages. Vidya Vikas gives a learning platform to children's through tradition, cultural customs and establishes good relation with the community through family and beyond. Sangeetha works as IT consultant. She loves dancing, singing, driving and reading.

Student in Focus

Badri Karthikeyan has been coming to Vidya Vikas for the past 8 years. He is an active learner, learning Tamil and religion. Badri attends Great Hearts School in Irving and is in 7th grade. He loves playing soccer and has been playing in Coppell FC for the past 4 years. He has been doing Scouting since 1st grade and wants to become an Eagle Scout. He has also been learning Carnatic flute for the past 3 years. His parents are thankful to the entire Vidya Vikas team for the endless volunteer efforts to help children understand Indian culture and religion.
